STATUS REPORT AND JOINT
PROPOSED BRIEFING SCHEDULE

In its February 14, 2019, minute order, this Court directed the parties to submit a joint proposed schedule for motions for summary judgment within seven days of its ruling on motions pertaining to the administrative record. Accordingly, following the Court's decision on the record motion dated June 11, 2019, the parties¹ have conferred and jointly propose the following schedule:

By June 26, 2019, the United States Army Corps of Engineers will add additional documents to the remand administrative record. See, e.g., ECF Nos. 402, 426.

All plaintiffs will file motions for summary judgment by August 16, 2019. Plaintiffs will coordinate to ensure that arguments are not repeated.

Defendants and intervenors will file cross-motions for summary judgment and oppositions to all plaintiffs' motions by October 9, 2019.

Plaintiffs will file their oppositions to the cross-motions, and replies in support of their summary judgment motions, by October 30, 2019.

Defendant and intervenors will file their reply briefs by November 20, 2019.

The page limits of the local rules will apply to all briefs but plaintiffs may share pages such that a longer brief by one party is permitted as long another plaintiff's brief is shorter by an equal or greater amount of pages.

Dated: June 18, 2019

Respectfully Submitted,
